

BOLTON NEEDS A LAW CENTRE

Public meeting with
Maxine Peake and Yasmin Qureshi MP

We want to launch Greater Manchester
Law Centre in Bolton.

If you agree and want to get involved join us!

FRIDAY
2ND FEBRUARY

7pm to 8pm at the

Lecture Theatre
Bolton Central Library
Le Mans Cres
Bolton BL1 1SE

Speakers include:

MAXINE PEAKE, an esteemed GMLC patron,
actress and campaigner

YASMIN QURESHI, MP for Bolton South East

DENISE MCDOWELL, Trustee of Greater Manchester Law Centre

“More and more families and individuals are finding themselves in positions where access to the law is being denied them, at precisely the time when they are most in need of it. Universal Credit, the denial of employment rights through zero hours contracts and minimum wage infringements and a hardening of this government’s stance against refugees and asylum seekers all make the [Greater Manchester] Law Centre Bolton urgent and necessary. I welcome and support the initiative whole heartedly.” MAXINE PEAKE

In 2015 Greater Manchester campaigners said if enough people wanted a Law Centre, there would be one.

In 2016 we opened our doors in Moss Side – since when we have helped Greater Manchester residents to reclaim over £500,000 in benefits that the DWP had denied them.

NOW WE NEED TO DO THE SAME IN BOLTON. GET INVOLVED, COME TO THE MEETING.

And we are not just a campaign for access to advice, or even access to the law, we are a campaign for JUSTICE. We call for full and equal legal advice and representation for the claimants as the state awards (out of our taxation) to the police and the other departments of the state. We want independent, walk-in, face-to-face advice for everyone in need in all the ten boroughs of Greater Manchester.

That's why we support the initiative in Bolton to develop legal support and will work closely with the local advice agencies, community groups and trades unions to develop this further.

Join us Friday, 2nd February, 7pm to 8pm, Lecture Theatre,
Bolton Central Library, Le Mans Cres, Bolton BL1 1SE
